2019 CSU Extension Grand Community Gardens Agreement & Waiver of Liability

As an accepted CSU Extension – Grand Community Gardener (GCG) I agree to:

- Complete an application, pay bed fees, and contact the site coordinator prior to using my assigned garden bed(s).
- Lock the gate when leaving the garden.
- Keep my garden and the surrounding areas maintained throughout the season, and keep walking paths free of obstruction. Weeds are to be eliminated by pulling or with the use of organic mulches rather than herbicides, unless approved by the GCG Board
- Understand if my bed is left untended, I will receive a notice by mail or email that I am not in compliance. If within two weeks, the garden does not meet CSU-Extension GCG standards, I will receive final notification that my garden bed and privileges have been forfeited. I understand my bed(s) will then revert to CSU Extension GCG use and no refunds will be issued.
- Seek approval from the site coordinator prior to the use of mechanical tillers.
- Plant my bed by July 1st or I forfeit the use of it as well as my fees.
- Volunteer 2 hours per month (May 15th-October 15th) or a total of 10 hours throughout the season.
- Log volunteer hours and information about materials added to my bed if requested by the site coordinator.
- Know that manure aged less than one year and not approved by the site coordinator is not permitted. Commercially processed compost and other soil amendments are allowed without approval.
- Not to store personal gardening tools and equipment at the gardening sites.
Return tools and equipment provided for common use to the storage areas designated by each site.
- Clean up my bed(s) by October 15th. This includes removal of plant material and weeds.
- Understand that if I wish to retain the same bed and plant winter crops I will be able to do so, providing I have been a gardener member in good standing as described in this agreement.
- Harvest only those vegetables or flowers, which I have planted, unless invited to do so by another gardener.
- Fully supervise any children I bring into the garden.
- Keep pets outside of the garden fence
- Refrain from any illegal activity on the GCG garden site.
- Allow GCG to use photos for promotional purposes. Promotional materials will be used for the sole purpose of increasing awareness of services offered by GCG. We are a non-profit organization created to enrich the Grand County citizens through education and the opportunity to grow one's own food.
